

BBQ Catering Service - 2010 Edition

Available from May - August

For the summer party season, we've designed a versatile and affordable outdoor BBQ package !

Catered Parties include a propane grill that will be the right size based on the number of guests expected. The catered event will also include the necessary workers that will setup, stay at the event, operate the grill, maintain the food stations and finally cleanup the area at the end of the meal serving time.
